Sustainable Schools: Mainstreaming the curriculum for the school community

A conference for curriculum leaders across Merseyside and West Cheshire, Halton and Warrington

Tuesday 23 March 2010, 9.30 - 3.00

Liverpool Hope University Conference Centre

All schools are expected to be Sustainable Schools by 2020. This conference aims to bring together faith schools and state schools at both primary and secondary levels, with NGOs. It will:

- * demonstrate how to build on existing best practice to design a whole school curriculum for sustainability
- * explore the potential for clusters of schools managing cross-phase transition and help link them with the assets of their communities
- * allow consideration of the learning that can be achieved through the DCSF's Sustainable Schools Framework (www.teachernet.gov.uk/sustainableschools)

Speakers: James Jones, Bishop of Liverpool, the Diocese which sponsors St Francis of Assisi Academy in Liverpool

John Edwards, Head and Tricia Harwood, Sustainability Manager, Lower Fields Primary School, Bradford

Tony Mulgrew, Catering Manager and Helen Plaice, Curriculum Head
at Todmorden High School – part of Incredible Edible Todmorden

Participants will have a choice of workshops during the day.

This conference is sponsored by Government Office North West, but there will be a fee of £25 for any participants who do not take up their place.

Please book by 15 March 2010. Send an email to events@dep.org.uk, phone 0161 921 8020 or download a booking form at www.dep.org.uk.
